NOTICE TO THE UNITHOLDERS OF THE FCP:
DWS Concept DJE Alpha Renten Global (K1000)
(the "Fund")

In addition to the announcement on December 1, 2025, regarding the changes to take effect on January 1, 2026 ("effective date"), the following text will be republished in the special section of the Sales Prospectus. A sentence has been added to the originally published section, which means that the relevant part is now available in its entirety:

Addition to the investment policy

From the effective date
No more than 25% of the Fund's assets may be invested in interest-bearing securities that do not have an investment-grade rating, but do have a credit rating of at least B3 (by Moody's) or B- (by S&P or Fitch). No more than 10% of the Fund's net assets may be invested in distressed or unrated securities. In the event of a subsequent infringement of the aforementioned limits, the Fund has a period of nine months to rectify the infringement.

The changes already published remain unaffected by this and will come into effect in the respective published version as announced.

NOTES

Investors are encouraged to request the updated Sales Prospectus and the corresponding Key Information Documents, which are available as of the effective date. The updated Sales Prospectus, the Key Information Documents, the annual and semiannual reports as well as other sales documents are available free of charge from the Management Company and from the information and paying agents designated in the Sales Prospectus, if applicable. These documents are also available at www.dws.com/fundinformation.
