Notice to the unitholders of the fund
Zurich Premium Multi Asset Offensiv (K1080)

(“the Fund”)

The following changes for the Fund enter into force on April 16, 2026 (“effective date”):

In addition to the published notice to unitholders of March 16, 2026, and the amendments contained therein, the Sales Prospectus will be editorially revised. The following will therefore be added to the notice to unitholders:

I. Other amendments to the Fund documentation

Furthermore, in the course of the revision of the Sales Prospectus or of the Management Regulations, the Management Company reserves the right to make other editorial amendments, provided these do not have any material impact on the rights of investors or on the Fund’s investment strategy. These changes will be implemented within the framework of the ongoing maintenance of the Fund documentation without being highlighted separately.

NOTES

Investors are encouraged to request the updated Sales Prospectus and the corresponding Key Information Documents, which are available as of the effective date. The updated Sales Prospectus, the Key Information Documents, the annual and semiannual reports as well as other sales documents are available free of charge from the Management Company and from the information and paying agents designated in the Sales Prospectus, if applicable. These documents are also available at www.dws.com/fundinformation.
