Fund Data

Investment Policy

DWS Invest Multi Opportunities is a benchmark free, total return oriented Multi Asset fund with an elevated risk budget. Five year rolling volatility is expected to be between 6% to 12% (no guarantee). The management targets to optimize the return per unit of risk by investing at least 25% in investment funds (a.o. equities, bonds, balanced funds) as well as via direct investments in equities, bonds, currencies, gold and other suitable assets. The fund may use derivatives for hedging and investment purposes. In order to achieve an optimal expected return to risk ratio, risk management is an integral part of the investment process. The fund is actively managed.

Fund Management's Comment

Market performance in May was driven by the overall very positive trend during the earnings season. The unbroken momentum surrounding AI investments was reflected in a further rise in earnings expectations for the current year, particularly in the technology sector. Hopes for a resolution to the Iran conflict led to a significant decline in oil prices. Despite temporary rises in yields to multi-year highs, bond markets stabilized toward the end of the month. In this environment, the MSCI World Index gained about 5.1% (in euro), while the euro depreciated by about 0.6% against the US dollar. Gold (in euro) fell by about 1.1% compared to the previous month, while the price of oil (WTI in euro) dropped by about 9.5%.

Opportunities

In accordance with the investment policy.

Risks

- The fund invests substantially in other funds. When investments are made in other funds, it must be taken into consideration that multiple target funds may pursue the same or mutually opposing investment strategies. This may result in lower diversification effects.
- The fund invests in equities. Equities are subject to strong price fluctuations and thus also to the risk of price decreases.
- The fund invests in bonds, the value of which depends on whether the issuer is able to afford its payments. The deterioration of credit quality (ability and willingness to repay) may have an adverse affect on the value of the bond.
- Due to its composition/the techniques used by the Fund management, the investment fund has elevated volatility, i.e. the share price may be subject to significant fluctuations up or down within short periods of time. The share value may fall below the purchase price at which the customer acquired the share at any time.

Important note on the target market:

Target Market: Growth-oriented

The sub-fund is designed for growth-oriented investors who wish to achieve capital appreciation primarily through equity gains and exchange rate movements. Expected earnings are offset by high equity, interest rate and currency risks as well as creditworthiness risks and the possibility of heavy losses of the invested capital, up to the total amount invested. The investor is willing and able to bear such a financial loss, and does not prioritize capital preservation.

The Company provides additional information relating to the profile of the typical investor or target customer group for this financial product to distribution agents and distribution partners. If the investor is advised on the acquisition of units by the Company's distribution agents or distribution partners, or if they act as brokers in the purchase of units, they may also provide the investor additional information that also relates to the profile of the typical investor.

Supplementary information on the target market and product costs resulting from the implementation of the MiFID2 Directive and made available to distribution agents by the capital management company can be obtained in electronic form from the Company's website at www.dws.com.

General information

When the custodian sets the price on the last trading day of the month there can be a difference of up to ten hours between the times at which the fund price and the benchmark are calculated. In the event of strong market movements during this period, this may result in the over- or understatement of the Fund's performance relative to the benchmark at the end of the month (this is referred to as the "pricing effect").

Important Notice

Investments in funds involve numerous risks including, among others, general market risks, credit risks, foreign exchange risks, interest rate risks and liquidity risks.

Key risk factors to consider before investing:

- Funds are not capital protected investments and investor capital is at risk up to the total amount invested.
- The value of an investment in a fund may go down as well as up and you may get back less than the amount invested.
- Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results.
- Movements in exchange rates can impact the value of your investment. If the currency of your country of residence is different from the currency in which the underlying investments of the fund are made, the value of your investment may increase or decrease subject to movements in exchange rates.

General Risks

Investing in the shares of a fund involves risks. These can encompass or involve equity or bond market risks, interest rate, credit, default, liquidity and counterparty risks as well as exchange rate, volatility, or political risks. Any of these risks may also occur along with other risks. Some of these risks are addressed briefly below.

Potential investors should possess experience of investing in instruments that are employed within the scope of the proposed investment policy. Investors should also understand the risks involved in investing in shares and should not make a decision to invest until they have fully consulted their legal, tax and financial advisers, auditors or other advisor about (i) the suitability of investing in the shares, taking into account their personal financial and tax situation and other circumstances, (ii) the information contained in the Sales prospectus, and (iii) the respective fund's investment policy.

It must be noted that investments made by a fund also contain risks in addition to the opportunities for price increases. The fund's shares are securities, the value of which is determined by the price fluctuations of the assets of the respective fund. Accordingly, the value of the shares may rise or fall in comparison with the purchase price. No assurance can therefore be given that the investment objectives will be achieved.

Market Risk

The price or market performance of financial products depends, in particular, on the performance of the capital markets, are affected by the overall economic environment and the general economic and political framework.

Credit Risk

The fund's performance could be negatively affected if an issuer of a debt security suffers an adverse change in financial condition that results in the issuer not making timely payments of interest or principal, a security downgrade or is unable to meet a financial obligation. Credit risk is greater for lower-rated securities.

Interest rate risk

When interest rates rise, prices of debt securities generally decline. The fund may be subject to a greater risk of rising interest rates due to the current period of historically low rates.

Derivatives Risk

Risks associated with derivatives include the risk that the derivative is not well correlated with the security, index or currency to which it relates; the risk that derivatives may result in losses or missed opportunities; the risk that the fund will be unable to sell the derivative because of an illiquid secondary market; the risk that a counterparty is unwilling or unable to meet its obligation; and the risk that the derivative transaction could expose the fund to the effects of leverage, which could increase the fund's exposure to the market and magnify potential losses.

Counterparty Risk

A financial institution or other counterparty with whom the fund does business or contracts with, or that underwrites, distributes or guarantees any investments, or that the fund owns or is otherwise exposed to may decline in financial health and become unable to honour its commitments.

Liquidity Risk

In certain situations, it may be difficult or impossible to sell an investment..

Exchange Traded Fund (ETF) Risk

Because ETFs trade on a securities exchange, their shares may trade at a premium or discount to their net asset value. An ETF is subject to the risks of the assets in which it invests as well as those of the investment strategy it follows.
