Automated decision-making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. As part of the Company's business and ongoing monitoring, the Company may from time to time carry out automated decision-making in relation to investors, including, for example, profiling of investors in the context of anti-money laundering reviews, and this may result in an investor being identified to the Revenue Commissioners and law enforcement authorities, and the Company terminating its relationship with the investor.

5. Keeping your information secure

We take all reasonable steps to ensure the safety, privacy and integrity of your personal data. We ensure that we have appropriate technical, organisational and security measures, appropriate to the sensitivity of your information to ensure it is secure.

For any transfers of your personal data outside the European Economic Area, we will ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place in compliance with Chapter V of the GDPR. This might include one or more of the following:

- The country which we are transferring the personal data to may be approved by the European Commission as offering an adequate level of data protection; and
- The recipient of the data may have signed 'standard contractual clauses' approved by the European Commission, obliging them to protect the personal data.

If you have any questions, please contact us (see 'Questions and Concerns').

8. What data protection rights do I have?

- Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it;
- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected;
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below);
- Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. - Request the transfer of your personal information to another party

In the event that we request, and receive, your consent to process your personal data for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Your withdrawal of consent will not affect the lawfulness of our processing based on consent before its withdrawal. If you wish to exercise this right, please see ‘Questions and Concerns’ below.

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact us in writing (see ‘Questions and Concerns’).
