GLOSSARY

One basis point equals 1/100 of a percentage point.

A benchmark is an index or other value against which an investment's performance is measured.

Bunds is a commonly used term for bonds issued by the German federal government with a maturity of 10 years.

The Chinese yuan (CNY) is legal tender on the Chinese mainland and the unit of account of the currency, Renminbi (RMB).

Covered bonds are securities similar to asset-backed securities (ABS) which are covered with public-sector or mortgages loans and remain on the issuer's balance sheet.

The current account includes trade in goods and services, a net-factor-income balance (e.g. earnings on foreign investments and cash transfers from individuals working abroad) and transfers (e.g. foreign aid). It is a part of the balance of payments.

The Dax is a blue-chip stock-market index consisting of the 30 major German companies trading on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

The dividend yield is the dividend that a company pays out each year divided by its share price.

Emerging markets (EM) are economies not yet fully developed in terms of, amongst others, market efficiency and liquidity.

The euro (EUR) is the common currency of states participating in the Economic and Monetary Union and is the second most held reserve currency in the world after the dollar.

The Euro Stoxx 50 is an index that tracks the performance of blue-chip stocks in the Eurozone.

The Eurozone is formed of 19 European Union member states that have adopted the euro as their common currency and sole legal tender.

Fiscal policy describes government spending policies that influence macroeconomic conditions. Through fiscal policy, the government attempts to improve unemployment rates, control inflation, stabilize business cycles and influence interest rates in an effort to control the economy.

The FTSE 100 is an index that tracks the performance of the 100 major companies trading on the London Stock Exchange.

Gilts are bonds that are issued by the British Government.

Gross national product (GNP) is economic statistic that measures what a country's citizens produced. It includes gross domestic product (GDP) plus any income earned by residents from overseas investments, but excludes income earned within the domestic economy by overseas residents.

High-yield bonds are issued by below-investment-grade-rated issuers and usually offer a relatively high yield.

Inflation is the rate at which the general level of prices for goods and services is rising and, subsequently, purchasing power is falling.

Investment grade (IG) refers to a credit rating from a rating agency that indicates that a bond has a relatively low risk of default.

The Japanese yen (JPY) is the official currency of Japan.

A mortgage-backed security (MBS) is a special type of asset-backed security where the holder receives interest and redemption payments from pooled mortgage debtors, secured by the underlying mortgages.

The MSCI AC Asia ex Japan Index captures large- and mid-cap representation across 2 of 3 developed-market countries (excluding Japan) and 8 emerging-market countries in Asia.

The MSCI Emerging Markets Index captures large- and mid-cap representation across 23 emerging-market countries.

The MSCI Japan Index is designed to measure the performance of the large- and mid-cap segments of the Japanese market.

Municipal bonds (Munis) are debt securities issued by a state, municipality or country.

The pound sterling (GBP), or simply the pound, is the official currency of the United Kingdom and its territories.

The price-to-earnings (P/E) ratio compares a company's current share price to its earnings per share.

The S&P 500 is an index that includes 500 leading U.S. companies capturing approximately 80% coverage of available U.S. market capitalization.

Sovereign bonds are bonds issued by governments.

The spread is the difference between the quoted rates of return on two different investments, usually of different credit quality.

The Stoxx Europe 600 is an index representing the performance of 600 listed companies across 18 European countries.

The Swiss Market Index \(SMI\) is Switzerland's most important equity index, consisting of the 20 largest and most liquid large- and mid-cap stocks.

The total return is a performance measure of an investment. It measures the earned income of an investment over a specific time period.

Treasuries are fixed-interest U.S. government debt securities with different maturities: Treasury bills (1 year maximum), Treasury notes (2 to 10 years), Treasury bonds (20 to 30 years) and Treasury Inflation Protected Securities (TIPS) (5, 10 and 30 years).

The U.S. dollar \(USD\) is the official currency of the United States and its overseas territories.

West Texas Intermediate \(WTI\) is a grade of crude oil used as a benchmark in oil pricing.
